

THE UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY

Teaching Material

Program

Hosted by the Julius Stone Institute of Jurisprudence

Tuesday 29 - Wednesday 30 November 2022

Location: Sydney Law School, New Law Building (F10), Eastern Avenue, Camperdown
Venue TBC

Day 1 – Tuesday 29 November

10.30-11.30pm	Remarks on Law and Political Economy by Professor Amy Kapczynski (Yale) via Zoom
1pm	Welcome – Coel, Dylan, Eddie & Ntina
1.15-2.15pm	Panel 1 – Challenging the Curriculum Karinda Burns, University of Western Australia and Aurora Milroy, University of Western Australia Indigenising the Juris Doctor at UWA Samantha Haran, The University of Queensland Critical Reflections on the UQ Law Student Experience
2.15-3.45pm	Panel 2 – Land, Property and Environment Emille Boulot, University of Tasmania and Dr Afshin Akhtar-Khavari, Queensland University of Technology Legal Pedagogy and its Commitment to Neoliberal Environments Dr Peter Burton, Adelaide Law School The Politics of Property Law
3.45pm	Afternoon Tea
4.15-5.15pm	Panel 3 – Public Law Dr Will Bateman, Australian National University Federalising Socialism Without Doctrine Dr Chris Rudge, The University of Sydney Teaching Constraints: Why We Should – But Don't – Teach About Legislative Constraints on the Commonwealth's Constitutional Power to Spend Money Dr Dylan Lino, The University of Queensland Putting Political Economy in Public Law Textbooks
5.15-6.30pm	Drinks and Australian Progressive Legal Studies ('APLS') Launch
6.30pm	Dinner

Day 2 – Wednesday 30 November

9-10.30am	Panel 4 – Private Law Dr Cristy Clark, University of Canberra The Political Economy of Property Law and of Projects to Indigenise Law Curriculum Dr Martin Clark, La Trobe University, Victoria Only Teaching Contract on a Teaching Only Contract Dr Marco Rizzi, The University of Western Australia The Political Economy of Harm: Negligence as the Watchdog of the Status Quo
10.30-11am	Morning Tea
11am-12pm	Panel 6 – Legal Theory 1 Professor Beth Goldblatt, University of Technology, Sydney Attending to the Material in ‘Gender and Law’ Professor Bronwyn Morgan, University of New South Wales and Dr Nofar Sheffi, University of New South Wales Legal Experimentalism at UNSW
12pm	Lunch
1-2.30pm	Panel 7 – Legal Theory 2 Dr Daniel McLoughlin, University of New South Wales Re-Designing Law and Social Theory at UNSW Professor Ben Golder, University of New South Wales Legal Theory in Crisis Dr Nina Tzouvala, Australian National University Building a Law and Political Economy Elective: One Approach and Three Mistakes
2.30-3.15pm	Future Plans for APLS Closing Remarks